valiant in declaring that nobody should close up his headquarters, and if they did, he, the Hon. Mr. Sinjun, would know the reason why. The Hon. Mr. Sinjun believed that Mr. Bryan would in Ostober revisit New York and make another speech. The Hon. Mr. Sinjun is favorable to that scheme. Chairman Jones looked very tired last night when the subject was mentioned to him at the Fifth Avenue Hotel. He said that he knew nothing as to the correctness of the Hon. Mr. Sinjun's utterance.

It was cool enough up town after the showers, it was almost delightful when one remembered the degressing heat of the last week. The rees in the Medison Square Park were green beyond compare, but it was a cold day for the Popecrate, and it was a still colder afternoon when the chief Popocrats were convinced that they were not to have the slitmate determination of everything, and that the Hon. Mr. Bryan had a heigment who was looking out unceasingly for the fortunes of her husband, and that if certain Popocrats of renown did not like the programme they must still smile and call to their support their inherent gallantry, and observe always the Southern maxim never to dispute the decisions of a woman.

OUTET AT POP HEADQUARTERS. Senator Jones's Threat to Close Them Up

The most somnolent place in town yesterday was the freak Popocratic headquarters of the Hon. William P. St. John at the Bartholdt Hotel. Nobody called except Senator Stewart of Nevada, the continuous talker, and a Hungarian, who wanted to sell the committee a 16 o I game, guaranteed to make converts to the cause of free silver. The four or five men who run the place spent the day in talking to each other about the weather. Neither Candidate Bryan nor Chairman Jones of the Popocratio National Committee has called since his arrival, and Senator Jones has intimated that he might decide to have the headquarters closed. might decide to have the headquarters closed. Gen. McLaughlin and the other managers were asked yesterday when they were going to be closed up, and all denied any knowledge of such a proceeding. Gen. McLaughlin has been erroneously referred to as Major McLaughlin. "Strictly speaking." he said yesterday, "I haven't any claim to a military title, but if I had one it would certainly be that of Major-General. I always turn up at the top of everything I go into. Why, when I was in the Cly Record Bureau I got to the top, and as soon as I became Supervisor I turned things upside down. I had the office so regulated in ashort time that the office boys could run it. It has been running smoothly ever since, but it was the work of one man that madejit what it is. It was McLaughlin who revolutionized it.

the work of one man that madelit what it is. It was McLaughlin who revolutionized it.
"Now, I was in the war, but it was as a member of the Sanitary Corps, and that's the reason I am not a Major-General."
Gen. McLaughlin, Jimmy Oliver, Mr. Cornell, and Mr. St. John's hired man spent part of their leisure yeaterday trying to explain to each other how so many tickets of admission to the Madison Square Garden meeting had fallen inbo the hands of speculators. The hired man was quoted in some of the newspapers as saying that thousands of tickets had been stolen from the Post Office. Postmaster Dayton and the other officials in charge of the mails laughed at this statement, and said the hired man was talking through his hat again.
Yesterday afternoon it occurred to Gen. McLaughlin to make another statement on this subject. He called in one of the stenographers and dictated a long piece in which he blamed St. John's hired man for all the trouble. Now, the hired man is directly in charge of the stenographers and typewriters, and Gen. MoLaughlin's statement was turned over to him to give to the reporters. When the hired man read it he jumped two feet out of his chair.
"This muant he given out," he cried, getting red in the face. "Has anybody got it yet?"
He made a rush for Gen. McLaughlin's room and there was anjexciting debate behind closed doors for a few minutes. After it was over it was announced that the statement had been suppressed.

EUROPE AND THE SILVER CRASE Bankers Tell H. C. Du Val that Our Credit Is in Danger.

Horace C. Du Val, private secretary to Chauncey M. Depew, got home yesterday on the American line steamer St. Paul from his annual wooks, having cut his visit short by three weeks on account of Cornelius Vanderbilt's illness, which forced Mr. Depew to return so quickly. What did the people you met have to say what did the people you met have to say about the silver craze in this country?" a reporter asked Mr. Du Vallast night.

"They said: 'I told you so. That is the result of a republican form of Government. It is the best proof in the world of the Inability of our people to govern themselves and of the folly of giving every man the ballot. Now the United States is about to fall right in line with Mexico and the Central and South American republica."

Mexico and the Central and South American soublics.

"Of course," Mr. Du Val continued, "they have heard only the most exaggerated reports of the condition of things here and many bank-ers whom I met can not believe it possible that we should mean to act so as to sacrifice the confidence of the world in our credit.

"Why do you know that in London I saw a lot of Massachusetts State bonds, payable in sterling, which had been sent to London by a German banker, with instructions to sell them for anything they would bring, as he did not wish to keep them any more at any price. Think of that! Massachusetts bonds—one of the soundess States in the Union:

"In Baden-Bailen an old man offered me some silver candicaticks. You had better buy them," he said, for you know silver will be dearer when you get free coinage in America.

"As nearly as I can gather from what I heard, the bankers of Europe look upon us as upon the brink of an awful chasm of which we do not see the depth. Our presperity has been produced by the use of the money of Great Britain, Holland, and Germany, and to some produced by the use of the money of treas Britain, Holland, and Germany, and to some extent Russia. This is what has kept our fac-tories going, opened our mines, built our rati-roads, and opened up the great West, and now oling with the confidence upon which he use of this money depends.

ONLY POPOCRATS ON GUARD.

Chairman Jones's Threat to Purge the National Committee of Anti-Bryan Men. WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.-Despatches from

Chairman of the Democratic National Committoo, had declared open war on those members of the National Committee not in sympathy with the election of Mr. Bryan, and had determined to oust them and substitute men more zealous in the cause, attracted a great deal of attention about headquarters this morning. While there was no one present authorized to speak for the Chairman, there was a general opinion that the position he was reported to have assumed was the only one he could take, and that it was absolutely essential in order to bring the party machinery into harmonious working condition. Senator Faulkner, Chairman of the Congress Committee, took the ground that the Chairman had the authority to oust such men as declined to follow the behests of their party and substitute others; that in so doing he acted for the National Committee, which was the sole representative of the National Convention, and the only organization that lived over from one Convention to another. Should Chairman Jones, he said, find that the policy he has outlined meets with too much opposition, he could easily accomplish the same result by appointing the men from the States in "rebellion." with whom he desires to supplant the regular members of the committee, to places on the Executive Committee, which will have the active management of the campaign. machinery into harmonious working condition

MONROE DEMOCRATS DIVIDED. Two Sets of Delegates Chosen to the State

ROCHESTER, Aug. 14.-The Fourth Democratic Assembly District Convention, held at Spencerport to-day, only served to increase the already alarming breach developed in the ranks of the Democratic party in Monroe county.

The Page or anti-Hill faction claimed a ma-fority of the delegates, and, refusing to abide by the rules laid down by Chairman Bronk of the County Committee, elected its own set of delegates for the State Convention.

The Smith men reorganized after the Convention of the old crowd, and also elected a set of delegates. In every district in the county the old crowd or Page faction is making a determined fight, and contesting delegations will be sent to Buffalo from every district in the county.

delegations will be sent to Buffalo from every district in the county.

The feeling between the warring factions caused a number of the delegates to indulge in a fist fight at the Convention.

In the Third district the Page faction refused to enter the Convention and held a separate meeting. Two sets of delegates were chosen.

WANTED BRYAN TO GO TO BEA. The Nomince Told Mr. Troup that This Was His Managers' Desire.

New HAVEN, Aug. 14 .- Alexander Troup, editor of the New Haven Union, returned from New York last night. He had been in conference with Mr. Bryan in reference to a Bryan day here. Mr. Troup says that Mr. Bryan told him that the campaign managers insisted that he take a rest of ten days, that he go to sea on a yacht where us one could get at him and where absolute rest could be certain.

The most enthusiastic admirer of the Boy Orator, so far as reports up to date show, is the Hon. Poindexter Dunn, former Congressman from the State of Arkansas. Since this distinguished Arkansa n ceased to draw his daily stinend of $20 from the fraud roll of the Treasury Department as an estensible investigator of New York Custom House irregularities, he has been living in Washington as a member of the extensive family of "Exs." When Mr. Dunn found himself in the presence of a local newspaper reporter he delivered himself of this culogy of the Boy Orator's Madison Square speech:

This speech demonstrates that Mr Bryan is a master of the science of government, a philosopher, and a staterman of the highest rank."

Among the callers at the Republican headquarters to-day was Congressman Taylor of Ohio, who took occasion to say that the reports floating about in free-silver newspapers, to the effect that the free-silver sentiment has permeated all classes in Ohio to such an extent that McKinler's victory there is doubtful, are absolutely without foundation. Since the nomination by the Michigan Republicans of Potato Pingree to be Governor, that State has also been placed in the column of absolutely certain Republican States. Information received here is that the Democrats will make no nomination in opposition to Pingree. He will get the bulk of the Populist vote, a large majority of the aliver vote, and the entire Republican vote, as he always has in his Mayoralty campaigns. The indications are that Mr. Pingree will make his campaign upon local issues, stand upon the platform, which nominated him, and which declared strongly in favor of the financial plank of the St. Louis platform. poned and a Mendquarters Located in Wachington at His Request - Try-ing to Save Misself in Maryland, WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Senator Jones of Arkaness, Chairman of the National "Demo-Committee, will formally open the

Under the law the election ballots are in charge of a Board consisting of the Governor, one member appended by the Democratic State Chairman, and one by the Republican State Chairman, which thus gives the Democrats coatrol of the Board of this year. Gov. Matthews said to-day:

"I will not deny that this subject has been discussed by some of us, but we have not yet prepared a specific line of action. The bolters who will meet here to nominate a national ticket will have no right to use the name Democrat, because that belongs to the organization which named its ticket at Chicago. I will see to it that the ignorant voter is not allowed to be confused by conflicting names and similarity of symbols."

The Governor expects, of course, that mandamus proceedings will be brought to require the Board to print on the blanket ballot the sound-money ticket, but he counts on the court, which politically is Democratic, to assist him in his scheme. At the recent conference there was some discussion as to what should be done at once to preserve the party name and at the same time follow the law. The subject was referred to each State to settle for itself.

"The late Chicago Convention declared in favor of a debased currency, repudiation, and class legislation. It threatened an assault upon the Supreme Court of the United States. It refused to endorse the Democratic Administration, because it used the power of the Government to enforce the decrees of the courts in maintaining law and order, and because it preserved the nation's credit, imperilled by vicious Republican legislation. It arbitrarily unseated regularly elected delegates of the State of Michigan, overriding the will of her Democracy. It put a Populist in nomination for President of the United States. In doing all these revolutionary things it ceased to be Democratic and forfeited all claim to the support of true the nomination of the Populistic ticket and the adoption of a Populistic platform, he can with impunity express his determination to remain a Democrat and to accept the ticket and the platform as the choice of two criis. So he gives up his long cherished plans for a summer vacation and remains within halling distance of Senator Jones.

But in spite of Mr. Gorman's peculiar attitude toward the ticket and the platform, the Democrats everywhere, so far as can be learned in Washington, are glad to have him as the real pilot of the campaign. They be lieve in Mr. Jones's honesty, but they doubt his ability as a political manager, and they are rejoiced to see at least one cool head in the confusion, uncertainty, and discouragement that confronts the Democratio organization. Mr. Gorman will not accept the Chairmanship of the Campaign Committee, because he does not want to be charged with the responsibility of the defeat of his party, and when the campaign is over he can claim for himself in his fight in Maryland oredit for having done all in his power for the success of the Democrati; ticket.

Senator Faulkner of West Virginia was on deck as usual at Democratic headquarters to day, still talking about the great outburst of enthusiasm at Madison Square Garden on Wednesday night, denying that any persons left the Garden while Bryan was speaking, ciaiming that nearly every State in the Union will give a Democratic majority in November, and in every possible way making himself ridiculous. The latest faction set up by Chairman Faulkner is that Bryan's great success as an ortor, as displayed by the sensation he created in New York, has frightened the Republican managers so that they dare not consider now the suggestion of a series of joint debates between Bryan and McKinley.

Senator Faulkner and his colleagues profess to be very anxions to advertice a hippodrome performance of this kind, but they know very well that such a proposition has never been considered by any one, and that in proclaiming McKinley's feer of insecting electoral ticket to be vated for by sound-money Permocrats in this state.

BRIDGEPORT, Aug. 14 .- A break has occurred in the ranks of the Democratic party in this city over the question of the endorsement of the Chicago platform which it is thought will result in the disruption of the party in this city and alack of any organized work in the coming national election. It occurred through the efforts of a few members of the Democratic Association to secure the endorsement of Bryan and Sewall by that body. The association is the mainstay of the party in this city, and all leading Democrats are members.

leading Democrats are members.

Last night the test came. A meeting was called, and despite the stifling heat the rooms were crowded. A resolution was introduced endorsing the silver ticket and providing for a banner on Main street, in front of the association's rooms. It was massed. Then came the resignation of C.38. Canfield, one of the best-known Democrats of this city, as President of the association. This was quickly followed by that of Fresterick S. Stevens, member of the State Central Committee and First Vice-President; George C. Hatch, a well-known manufacturer and Second Vice-President; Attorney James Thompson, President of the Board of Alderman William T. Hincks and Attorney James Thompson, President and the members of the association realized they were losing some of their best men, there was an effort made to reconsider the matter, but the wishes of the more conservative members were totally disregarded. The friends of silver were in the majority, and, although expressions of regret at the retirement of the officers of the association were heard, they were allowed to go.

association were heard, they were allowed to go.

The association is now without officers. A meeting will be called in a day or two to elect officers. At the meeting last night many Democrate spoke against the adoption of the resolution, and hinted that they would not remain members, and a wholesale list of resignations is looked for. It is expected that Bryan will be in this city next month, and what members thore are left in the association will make arrangements to entertain him. Ex-President carfield is one of the delegates from this State to the Sound-money Convention in Indianapolis.

MARYLAND MAY SEND DELEGATES Sound-money Democrats May Be Repro-

BALTIMORE, Md., Aug. 14.-The sound-money Democrats of Maryland are likely to send sixteen delegates to the Indianapolis Convention, notwithstanding the action of the Executive Committee of the Sound-money League of Maryland in deciding to make no effort in that direction. The opinion is growing that a sound money electoral ticket ing that a sound-money electoral locker should be nominated in Maryland, and several well-known Democrats are quoted to that effect this afternoon.

Harry A. Part, President of the Sound-money league, has determined to call the Executive Committee together for a possible reconsideration of the vote whereby it was decided to send no delegates to Indianapolis. Mr. Part said:

reconsideration of the voice whereby it was decided to send no delegates to Indianapolis. Mr. Parr said:

"I am ready to do all is my power to aid the sound-money Democrats in other States in their movement to defeat Bryan. If they think it will be of any service to them for Maryland to send delegates to the Indianapolis Convention. I shall favor that plan, and to that end will call the committee together at once to take action on the matter. If it should be considered the best plan to nominate a third ticket, I shall not oppose it, although in my opinion the best way to defeat Bryan is to vote for McKinley directly, and thus emphasize the protest.

"I do not believe in any half-way business. Some of the members of our league, as the matter now stands, will vote for McKinley, some will not vote at all, but some of them will vote for Bryan."

money Democratic Convention at Indianapolis, but I am also in favor of nominating a sound-money electoral ticket in Maryland. These are many Democrats in this State who do not wish to vote for Bryan, but who will vote for him in preference to McKinley, yet who would vote for a sound-money Democratic ticket, should one be placed in the field."

GMN. JO SHELBY BOLTS BRYAN

He Mays He Is a Demagague and that the Pintform Is Populism Sugar-coated. WASHINGTON, Ang. 14 - A copy of an open letter from Gen. Je Shelby, Cleveland's Marshal for the district of Missouri and the per sonal friend of Senators Vest and Cockrell, to ex-Gov. Crittenden, now Consul-General to Mexico, in which Gen. Shelby criticises his friend for for-aking "sound money" for the cause of eliver, and declaring that he (Snelby) must vote for McKinley and "sound money." has reached the Republican Committee, and wide distribution will be given it. The friendliest tone pervades the letter, but the General expresses his astonishment at the sudden flop of his old friend, and his "surprise that you have with hasty band chained yourself to the triumphal chariot; of the three Governors-Altgeld, Stone, and Tillman-a turbulent trinity of stormy political petrels, whose piping notes have always presaged storm and shipwreck to the Democratic party."

Referring to the Chicago National Convention, Gen. Shelby says that it was not Democratic. "It was a conglomeration of all par-ties, anarchism and populism being in the as-cendancy. Democracy is rock-ribbed and stands upon principle and cannot be swept from its feet by mixed metaphors and graceful periods. Democrats are not a Roman rabble to be swerved from duty by a Nebraska Mark Anton." After discussing the platform at some length,

Antony."

After discussing the platform at some length, Gen. Shelby says:

"I see the way clearly, and shall follow the old paths of Democracy as laid out by the fathers of the republic. Is there one line in the practical colarations of the Chicago platform that was ever there before? Of the practical living issues now present, there is as marked an absence of true Democratic doctrine in the Chicago platform as there is o'vital piety in one of Col. Ingersoil's addresses. You must go to Ocala and Omaha to find the progenitors of the vital issues present at Chicago. Repudiation of public and private faith and social disorder will be the twin offspring of the unholy alliance between the Populists and the Democrats, whose bans were published at Chicago, and whose marriare ites were consummated at St. Louis last month. The alien blood imported from Omaha will taint the Democracy and make the issue spurious."

Calling Gen. Crittenden's attention to the position he assumed at the outbreak of the war, when he (Shelby) and others besought him to join the Confederates, Gen. Shelby concludes his letter as follows:

"I will abandon friends, party, and kindred."

his letter as follows:
"I will abandon friends, party, and kindred rather than yield even implied consent to such a bare assortment of political hereneys. Here a good patient will not take a quack's medicine. If he does he dies; and if the party swalcine. If he does he dies; and if the party swallows the Chicago prescription its days are numered, its death is certain. The Chicago platform is populism, sugar coated. Its candidate is a rising demagogue, a dancerous rhetorician, who for a momentary applause would light a torch and apply it to the very citadel of American liberty. There should be but two candidates, and we, who believe in sustaining law, order, and sound currency, should vote for McKinley. Those who favor free and unlimited coinage of silver, disorder, misrule, and ultimate repudiation, should support Bryan and take their choice between Sewall and Watson."

FUSION IN WASHINGTON.

By the Plan Proposed the Pops Get the Best of the bituation

ELLENSBURG, Wash., Aug. 14.-Just before 8 o'clock this morning the Conference Committees of the three State Conventions which are in session here agreed upon the following fusion plan, which was reported back to the several Conventions at the opening of the forenoon session. The Populists get two Presi dential electors, the Governor, the Licutenant-Governor, the Secretary of State, Auditor, Governor, the Secretary of State, Auditor, Land Commissioner, and one Congressman. The Democrats get two electors, the member of the Supreme Court, the Treasurer, and State Printer. The free-silver Republicans get one Congressman, the Attorney-General, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction. The scheine was vicorously discussed and debated by the three Conventions. The Democrats are greatly chagrined and dissatisfied with it, and it is probable their Convention will reject the proposition and nominate a separate ticket unless they get a Congressman.

Nebraska Pops Favorable to Fusion. LINCOLN, Neb., Aug. 14,-At a meeting of the Populist State Executive Committee last night sentiment was favorable to fusion with the freesilver Democrate on the State and National ticket, but the Populists will insist on naming candidates of their own for Congress in the five districts outside the first.

Texas Populists Willing to Fuse.

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 14 .- At a meeting of the Populist State Campaign Committee yesterday it was determined that they be present at the State Democratic convention at Fort Worth on next Tuesday and propose a fusion on the Presi-dential electoral ticket, the Democrats taking eight and the Populists seven.

Fusion Conferences in Missourt.

St. Louis, Aug. 14.-The Democratic State Central Committee yesterday authorized a subcommittee to confer with the Populist State Committee to ascertain if it was possible to reach an agreement whereby but one electoral ticket would be put in the field. The Popullate have taken no steps toward fusion, but it is known that they are anxious for a conference.

The Lease-Lewelling War Declared Off. WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 14. Mrs. Lease commissioned her sen to go to the Populist County Convention yesterday and officially declare there that the political war heretofore existing between the Lease and Lewelling families had been declared off. Young Lease seconded the nomination of ex-Gov. Lewelling for State Senator, and the Convention went wild in its demonstrations of joy.

Coomba Save the West Is Prosperous. Ex-Congressman William J. Coombs returned to his home in Brooklyn from a trip in the West yesterday. Mr. Coombs is a sound-money Democrat and does not believe in repudiation in any guise. He spoke with enthusiasm of the prosperous condition of the crops and business interests in the West, and said that in the mining States(the prosperity is marked and amounts ing States(the prespective is marked and amounts almost to a boom.

"There is less feeling of depression there than in the Fast," said Mr. Coombs, "and they have no hesitation in branding the stories of suffering and misfortune as related by their orators as fabrications. When I called their attention to these stories they smiled. When I asked for their reasons for demanding the free coinage of silver, nine out of ten of them had no other reason than that they wanted a better market for one of their chief products—silver."

HANNA IS ENCOURAGED.

REPORTS FROM WESTERN STATES ON THE CAMPAIGN SITUATION.

Dr. Jamtesen, Illinote's National Committeemas, Says that State Will Go for Mc-Kinley by from 50,000 to 25,000 Reports from Other States Considered.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.-Chairman Hanna exressed himself to-day as well pleased with the result of his week's sojourn in Chicago. Early this forenoon Mr. Hanna had a visit by arrangement with Dr. T. N. Jamieson, the National Committeeman and the situation in Illinois was talked over. The result of that was that Mr. Hanna will leave for Cleveland to-morrow with the impression that Illinois is securely in the Republican column. Jamieson is conservative and given to stating the truth bluntly. Several weeks ago he found cause for the belief that Illinois was captured by the Democrats and free silver. and that if an election were held at that time it would go Democratic.

since that time there has been such a feac-tion that to-day Dr. Jamieson is confident that this State will go Republican by from 50,000 to 75,000 majority. That is what Dr. Jamieson told Mr. Hauna this morning, but he added a qualifying phrase. He said that his opinion was based on a revo-lution in public sentiment in this State and a probability of a landslide, but there was a ros-sibility that the change was only a full in the probability of a landslide, but there was a possibility that the change was only a lull in the storm. Secretary Van Cleave of the State Republican Committee has the documentary evidence of a Republican landslide in illinois in his hands, but, being an old-time campaigner, he does not believe in making public the places in which the Republican organization has been making gains. He declares emphatically that it is not a lull, but a landslide.
Mr. Hanna goes back East with more than a chunk of good news from illinois. Since his arrival here he has received encouraging news from lowa, Indiana, Idaho, Nebraska, Texas, Montana, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, North and South Dakota, Utah, California, and Oregon. He will thus be in a position to take back East the cheering assurance that in all of these States the outlook for the Republican party is many degrees brighter than it was

Since that time there has been such a reac back East the cheering assurance that in all of these States the outlook for the Republican party is many degrees brighter than it was some weeks ago; that the silver excitement in the States mentioned is on the decrease; that the people are getting back to their second sober thought, and to the discussion of the tariff and protective issues, and, finally, that the probabilities seem to be that the Republican cause will be triumphant.

In the East there is an idea that the West is in the grio of free silver. When Mr. Hanna gets back to New York he will dissipate that idea. He will tell the Eastern men that, although the people are interested in the currency question, they are not interested in it as special pleaders for free silver, but just to find out the merits of the discussion. He will also tell them that the Chicago headquarters have flooded the country with sound-money literature and sound-money oratory and that the change in sentiment throughout the whole Western and Northwestern country has been sudden and acute.

Judge Bigelow of Nevada called in to-day and reported that the silver craze in Nevada was about dead. He said that, although the vilver barons were putting forward every effort to keep the silver issue to the front, the campaign literature of the Chicago headquarters was having its effect, and the people were coming back to the old and original Republican issues.

MR. WANAMAKER SPEAKS. No Beason Why the Country Should Lose

Millions to Benefit Mine Owners. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 14 .- At a Republican mass meeting held in Germantown, a suburb, to-night, ex-Postmaster-General John Wana maker made a speech against free coinage. Mr

Wanamaker said in part:

"It is safe to appeal to the higher court of the people. Thin-spun arguments carefully canned and carried a thousand find no market, I know that the man the moving speech nights ago, that moved half his audience out of doors in twenty minutes and the other half into an impenetrable fog, and other speakers like him, will look at you and me and shake their heads sorrowfully and solemnly. A large mouth may speak great things, but to effect anything it needs underneath the awell of the soul baptized with honor and truth, intelligence and experience. "If America needs more money, as is unfairly claimed, why not take a strip of paper that costs a cent, and let the Government have much more profit? If she gets 99 cents for every dollar she will have to redeem the dollar, but if she makes a silver dollar with 53 cents' worth of silver and ever had to redeem it for a dollar she would lose half a million out of every million dollars.

"On a year's coinage of an output of silver mines, say $200,000,000, she would lose $100,000,000. Why should we lose all this money for the benefit of a few silver magnates? I know that it is claimed that silver will rise in price. I do not believe it. All experience is against it. I confidently believe that we can find larger uses of silver. I am not without sympathy for the owners of silver property who need protection. I believe that we can incorporate into our financial system an eniarged use of silver, and otherwise benefit this important industry, but I am not willing to bring financial distress and disaster to every business and home of the land for the sake of one class that owns and operates in silver.

"There is nothing in the free-silver coinage a cent, and let the Government have much more owns and operates in silver.

"There is nothing in the free-silver coinage but dire distress and disaster. Stop in the old Republican paths until you find safer, stronger ground somewhere eise. Men that had all to gain and nothing to lose did the mischief to the country before the election four years ago. These same men are at it again, Wreckers they are, in hopes of a part of the salvage cast upon the shore."

ALABAMA G. O. P. PACTIONS. Dr. Mosely Thinking About Nominating Another Electoral Ticket.

BIRMINGHAM. Als., Aug. 14 .- Another Republican electoral ticket in Alabama seems probable. Dr. R. A. Mosely, who was State Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee, and who was unseated by the National Committee at St. Louis, has called a meeting of the old committee for Sept. 5 in Montgomery. the old committee for Sept. 5 in Montgomery. It is given out that another electoral ticket is to be named. When the Nations: Committee met in St. Louis two months ago there were contests from nearly every district in Alabama. The committee seated McKinley delegates from all except from the ninth, where it recognized Mosely followers. When the State Executive Committee met the Ninth district delegates from Mosely's side were unseated. This caused Mosely to rise in indignation and he is reorganizing his old committees. It is easid Mosely claims that Mark Hanna has tried to settle the differences between the factions but the Vaughan men say Mosely is bluffing.

Oswego County Is for Strannban for Lientenunt-Governor.

Oswego, Aug. 14. At the First district Republican Convention of Oswego sounty, held to-day, Senator N. N. Stranahan named the State delegates. L. P. Taylor was renominated for Assembly. Great enthusiasm was shown over Senator Stranahan's candidacy shown over Senator Stranahan's candidacy for Lieutenant-Governor, and a large number of his supporters will accompany the delegation to Saratoga. Similar action was taken yesterday by the Convention of the Strond district of this county. Both Conventions named Congress delegates for Charles A. Chickering of Lewis, and Judicial delegates for Frank H. Hiscock of Syracuse.

Rochisster, Aug. 14.—Dr. David J. Hill, former President of the University of Rochester, will enter into active political life at the Republican State Convention, where he will present the name of George W. WARNER MILLER'S DEFRAT. The Herkimer Statesman Atala Outside UTICA, Aug. 14.-The smoke has not entirely cleared away as yet from the Herkimer county hattlefield, where the forces of Warner Miller and Titus Sheard met in conflict yesterday. It was the day of the caucuses in the Twenty-fifth Congress district, which is made up of Oneida and Herkimer counties, and the struggle was the supreme effort of each faction. Whichever lost, the de-feat cannot be traced to inactivity before the battle was fairly on, because the whole country adjoining Herkimer county was scoured for the purpose of finding men whose homes were in the Brenstworks-Hackett Wins,

A number of the people residing there are employed in this city, and one man here was sought three different days by emissaries from Warner Miller, who wanted him to be at home caucus day. It simply shows the desperation with which the factions worked.

Including the city of Little Falls, counted as a town in addition to the regular township of Little Falls, there are 22 towns in Herkimer county, having a total of 64 delegates to the Convention which elects delegates to the State and other conventions.

It is conceded that Warner Miller has Kerkimer, Litchfield, Manheim, Newport, Norway, Russia, Stark, Warren, Wilmurt, and Winfield, or thirty delegates. Sheard has the following: Columbia, Danube, Fairfield, Webb, Ohio, Frankfort, Salisbury, Schuyler, and Little Falls town, three each, and Little Falls city, four, giving him thirty-one delegates. Then there is the town of German Flatts, adjoining the village of Herkimer, with three more delegates. The town has a favorite son, Seth Heacock of the village of Ilion, who desires to go to Congress, and the delegates from German Flatts to all the Conventions are instructed to do as he w ishes. This delegation is therefore the one which holds the key to the situation. The Sheard-Platt forces are favorable to Congressman Sherman of this city for a renomination. As the Platt people in the three districts of Onelda county control the Congress district also, it is fair to assume that Mr. Heacock's ambitions may not be realized. That being so he may throw his delegation to the support of Warner Miller, which would give spe latter 33 The Sheard men, however, are contain that they will win out.

Miller has control of the County Committee in the Convention which is to be held to-mor-row. At that time the hand will be played, and the Convention will be the fiercest ever held in Herkimer county. It is possible that there will be a contest to the State Convention, in which Mr. Miller's chances are about the same as they are of his being nominated for Governor.

It is more than probable that in the and the Sheard-Platt forces will be victorios The canvasses in Herkimer and Opelda insures the redlection of Charles W. Hackett as member of the State Committee from the Twenty-fifth Congress district.

A number of contradictory reports were sent into New York yesterday from Herkimer county as to the result of the contest between the Hon. Warner Miller and the Hon. Titus Sheard. The Hon. Mr. Sheard telegraphed to Charles W. Hackett, Chairman of the Republican State Committee at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, the following short but emphatic statement:

"I have thirty-four delegates." This would give Mr. Sheard four majority in the Convention which is to be held in Mr. Miller's district to-day. Just at the time that Mr. Sheard's despatch was received an up-State Republican arrived from Michigan, where he had Republican handed out the following clipping

"If Mr. Warner Miller actually thinks he has got Mr. Platt licked to within an inch of his life, it simply shows that Mr. Miller is no judge

Some of Mr. Miller's friends were at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, and they said that the contest was so close in Herkimer county that Mr. Miller would be justified in making a contest before the Saratoga Convention, which is to meet on Aug. 25. Those who heard these comments said that the skylights of the village hall in Saratoga were brittle, and that Mr. Miller would make a beautiful sight as he was thrown through them by the Committee on Credentials. Other old friends of Mr. Miller said that he had heen humilisted enough without precipitating a contest before the Committee on Credentials. They told how Mr. Miller had made a house-to-house canvass against Mr. Sheard, and they were quite ready to believe that Mr. Sheard had won the fight. They said further that it was humiliation enough for Mr. Miller to be compelled to make this house-to-house canvass for the purpose of controlling the delegates in his own county of Herkimer, where for a quarter of a century he had been powerful. These friends of Mr. Miller did not believe that he should be subjected to being thrown through the skylights in the Baratoga Convention. The Platt men talked far differently. They declared that Mr. Miller had been righteously defeated and that the verdict against him was merely the outcome of Mr. Miller's own conduct, and Mr. Miller's Republican critics recalled the words of John Rabes at St. Louis, that he, Mr. Miller, "had been faithful in nothing and faithless in everything." Presumably Mr. Raines referred to Mr. Miller's attitude toward the Republican organization of the Empire State. been humiliated enough without precipitating

THE TIDE TOWARD M'RINLET. Miners Payor Sound Money-False Rumor About J. C. Dueber.

CARTON, O., Aug. 14.-Letters and telegrams continue to come from all parts of the country to Major McKinley giving assurance of hearty support. He had a consultation to-day with the Hon. John. Thomas, county Chairman of the Republican party. The matter under discussion was the attitude of the coal miners of the country on the money question. Mr. Thomas has been a member of the State Legislature, and is one of the recognized leaders of labor in this State. He has been a wielder of the pick in the coal mines of this State, and is as well acquainted with the views of the miners as any other man in Ohio.
